

JEFFERSON WINS; NO WONDER SHE FAINTED—Jefferson high school's winning touchdown, in the closing minutes of its championship game with Central of Davenport, was just too much for Janet Pease, a cheerleader. She fainted. The ten thousand people in the stadium and the several hundred thousand who watched the game on television will sympathize with her when they see this picture. They were on the verge of fainting, too.

That's Dr. Percy Harris, team physician, standing at left. On bended knee at left is Fred Buchanan, trainer. Cheerleader at right is Carol Astor. Chuck Conrad, trainer's assistant, is at lower right. Holding Janet is Roger Meeker, Jefferson teacher . . . For story of Jefferson's 20-18 victory, see page 4. More photos on pages 4, 5 and 14.
